WAKING UP.

The Salt Lake Herald grows enthusiastic over the increasing trade between that city and Pioche. The activity displayed by the Salt Lake City people will have a good effect upon Pioche, by stimulating the incorporators of the road to Palisades to renewed action. By request we copy the Herald's article entire:

No better illustration of this idea presents itself than the vast amount of freight that is coming to this city and passing to points beyond.

In the month of October 14,000 tons of freight came by rail over the Utah Central, and the railroad to the south of the city is occupied to its full capacity.

The merchandise for the month of November, just passed, we are informed, will exceed that of October.

The route to Pioche, all stage travelers inform us, is lined with teams; but we suppose that it is more owing to Gen. Page's railroad iron, on its way to join mills and mines, than the great amount of merchandise for Pioche.

Yet the Pioche Daily Record says under date of November 27th: "We learn from Gen. Page that there are not less than 300 freight teams on the road from Salt Lake to Pioche, laden with merchandise for this place."

This shows the merchants of that section are awaking to the fact that this route is better and surer than any other; transportation being plenty the year round; the road passing through the principal towns of the Territory.

Gordon & Murray, our enterprising forwarding house, took this iron contract, and have proven the fact that eighteen miles of railroad iron can be moved within a period of two months, besides shipping immense quantities of goods for private parties. Why, then, should we neglect the opportunity to retain the freighting within ourselves? Every dollar can be kept within the Territory, by improving the roads—aiding the teamster, and thereby helping the merchants of this city. Even the wagon trade at Salt Lake has become enormous, and the supply is not equal to the demand; showing at once the increase over a year ago, when our yards were filled. It is full time the road commissioner put this great highway of travel in the best order; and we call upon those who have authority, to see that it is promptly done. The old bridge over the Sevier has been torn down and rebuilt—this is good; but every portion of the road must be overlooked, so that our competing lines will be forced to admit we have the best road, and can move larger quantities of freight than it is possible for them to do.

We have ourselves, within the city, done very little towards improvements during the past year; but there are still grand opportunities for the future, which we should not neglect until it is too late to grasp!

The constant finding of mines; the opening of new mining districts; the fields of coal and iron, at the south of us must not be lost sight of, or passed by carelessly.

The Southern Railroad should be pushed ahead with all possible vigor; for every mile added, every hour shortened, brings business and greenbacks to our own doors. And it seems to us that our business men have been napping, expecting "time and tide" would come to them; whereas, if they would take a lesson from Chicago and do a little pushing together, the year 1873 will become a marked epoch in our history! This we shall be proud of. We must become a great inland city, and a great railroad centre, but to effect this we must not loiter. Work, unceasing, vigorous work is imperatively necessary.

COMPILATION OF THE LAWS.—The Virginia Chronicle very truly says what every practitioner in the Courts of this State will probably endorse:

The compilation of the laws of Nevada has long been much needed and felt as a public necessity by all who have occasion to consult the numerous and incongruous statutes. M. S. Bonfield and T. W. Healey have been engaged for a large portion of the last two years in compiling these laws. From what we have seen of the manuscript and learn from those who have examined the work, we are constrained to pronounce it of great value, and reflecting credit upon the compilers. The law is only inserted, with the various amendments in their appropriate places in the several Acts. The manuscript contains copious notes and references, together with the decisions of the Supreme Court of Nevada on the statute law. The work contains 204 chapters, besides all the Congressional laws of the State, together with the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution of the United States, the naturalization laws, etc. We will give this work further notice, giving more minute details hereafter. We understand it will be presented to the next session of the Legislature, and aid asked for its publication. It has been submitted to the Judges of the Supreme Court, and Judge Lewis has given a certificate of recommendation.

Gov. Bradley has made an excellent selection in the appointment of Hon. Jas. W. Haines to the position of Alternate Commissioner to the Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia. Mr. Haines is an excellent representative of our interests, and will exert himself to perform, with credit to himself and State, the responsibilities confided to him.

Telegraphic Dispatches.

SPECIAL TO THE POCHE DAILY RECORD

PACIFIC COAST.

San Francisco, Dec. 12.—William S. Gardner, of Elko, committed suicide by shooting himself in the abdomen, last night, at the Overland House. He had been dissipating for about six weeks.

The joint committee of the Board of Supervisors will commence the investigation of the Industrial School matters at 2 p. m. to-day.

The North Pacific Railroad Company has increased its capital stock to three million dollars.

The English captains in port have determined to ship crews through the office of the U. S. Shipping Commissioner, and will not patronize the boarding-house keepers. The police have been called on to guard the Commissioner's office.

Salt Lake, Dec. 12.—Maj. Powell, the explorer, has arrived from Arizona, and reports the expedition of great interest and scientific value.

Brigham Young is going to the South for his health.

Accounts, most favorable, pour in from the mining districts. No snow; everybody working hard. Rich carbonates have been struck in the Emma mine, but they fear another cave, owing to the bad timbering. Such activity and promise in the mining interest was never known in Utah.

Testimony is being taken in all parts of the Territory in the contest of Maxwell vs. Cannon for the seat as Delegate to Congress.

All the gamblers in the city were arrested and fined $100 each.

Yreka, Dec. 12.—It is now stated that a Hot Creek band of Modocs, while pretending to want to go on the Reservation, were secretly making arrows and running bullets, and when they left had bullets in the hat-full. Captain Jack told Fairchild he did not want to harm settlers; that it was Jim's band who committed the murders, and he was not with them. He only wants to fight soldiers, and will do that to the bitter end before he will go on the Reservation.

They must have supplies laid in for a year, as they have always declared they would fight before they would be taken there. The person sent down to notify the settlers at the commencement of the trouble failed to go; hence the loss of many who could have escaped.

Gov. Booth was telegraphed to, and arms for the volunteers will be sent tomorrow.

The new Masonic Hall will be dedicated on the 27th inst.

San Francisco, Dec. 12.—William M. Lent has gone East to prosecute a civil suit against Arnold, "The Salter," for $350,000. He has attached Arnold's property in Elizabethtown, Ky., and $9,000 in a savings bank at Louisville.

The 19th District Court has decided against Martin Bulger; and that J. C. Merrill is entitled to a seat in the Board of Fire Commissioners.

The trial of P. M. Lee for embezzlement was commenced in the Municipal Court this afternoon, and is not yet concluded. Lee was one of the counsel for the Brothertons, and is indicted for having tried fraudulently to influence one of the jurors. Phenias Hudson testified that Lee told him he was glad he was on the jury, and that it would be a great professional triumph to him to win the case, but he made no offers of money contingent on the result of the trial.

The investigation of charges against the Superintendent of the Industrial School was commenced this afternoon. No new facts have been elicited thus far.

EASTERN.

Washington, Dec. 12.—The Senate Naval Committee briefly discussed a bill providing for the construction of new sloop-of-war, but took no action. It is considered certain, however, that the Committee will recommend a provision for ten vessels instead of six, as provided for in the bill which passed the House.

Boston, Dec. 12.—In the Massachusetts House, to-day, Hoyt offered the following preamble and resolution, which were referred to the Committee on Federal Relations:

Whereas, Charles Sumner, Senator from Massachusetts, has proposed on the floor of the U. S. Senate to erase from the flags of the Republic and from the registers of the army all inscriptions, mementoes and tokens of battles and victories of the Union arms in the late war of the Rebellion; Therefore,

Resolved, That this attempt to degrade the loyal soldiery of the nation and their grand achievements, meets our unequalled condemnation, and merits the disapproval of the people of this Commonwealth.

New York, Dec. 12.—The swindled Italian immigrants at Castle Garden are starving, being wholly destitute. The people are of the lower class, and it appears that printed handbills had been circulated by Emigrant Agents all over Italy, describing America as a country of fabulous wealth. Many of them don't know whether they are in New York or Buenos Ayres.

Henry J. Foster, cashier of the City National Bank, Brooklyn, is reported a defaulter to the extent of $10,000.

Washington, Dec. 12.—Secretary Delano said, to-day, that he was going South under advice of his physician, and will probably visit Havana before his return.

Augusta, Ga., Dec. 12.—Three to four inches of snow fell here last night, being the heaviest fall in this section for many years.

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 12.—About 1 o'clock to-day, while the Capitol Legislature was in session, Sheriff Strobach appeared, and said he had a warrant from Gov. Lewis to take possession of the Capitol. The Senate ordered the Sergeant-at-Arms to arrest the Sheriff for contempt, and hold him in custody 48 hours, dating from noon. The Sheriff did not resist the arrest, saying he was merely acting under orders. On apologizing to the Senate, he was released. For a few minutes the excitement was intense. The Federal troops stationed near the Capitol were got under arms, but no necessity for action appearing, dispersed to their quarters. The Senate authorized the Sergeant-at-Arms to summon a military guard at the Capitol to operate against all Federal forces, and adjourned. The Sheriff appeared before the House, but the Sergeant-at-Arms refused admittance except to Federal forces, and the Sheriff withdrew. The Legislature in the Court Room admitted another person, who, according to official returns, was defeated by a large majority.

Philadelphia, Dec. 12.—Edwin Forrest, the tragedian, fell dead this morning, while dressing at his home, North Broad street.

Washington, Dec. 12.—Vice President Colfax states that nothing whatever is settled as yet in respect to his becoming editor of the New York Tribune.

Pittsburg, December 12.—A number of workmen at the Beaver Falls Cutlery Company's struck, on account of the introduction of 160 Chinese, who, the workmen allege, are intended to take the place of whites as soon as they are sufficiently instructed, at one-fourth of the present wages.

Washington, Dec. 12.—Attorney General Williams, with the approval of the President, proposes a plan for the settlement of the difficulties in Alabama, by the resignation of the present General Assembly and reorganization, with the privilege of allowing each branch of the Legislature to determine by vote as to the members elected from the contesting counties.

The Credit Mobile Committee to-day examined Speaker Blaine. Oakes Ames and McComb were present with counsel. Everything was secret.

The Attorney General, this morning, in response to a telegram from Acting Governor Pinchback, of Louisiana, sent him the following dispatch: "Let it be understood that you are recognized by the President as the lawful Executive of that body assembled at the Mechanics' Institute. It is suggested that you make proclamation to that effect; also, that all necessary aid will be given you and the Legislature there in an organized effort to protect the State from disorder and violence."

The President returned to-day. The Supreme Court Room is crowded, hearing the Louisiana claim. Phillips, Cushing, Carpenter and Ogden participated in the argument. The decision was reserved.

New York, Dec. 12.—Wm. A. Lanvale, one of the Directors of the Montreal branch of the British North American Bank, has been arrested here, charged with feloniously appropriating the funds of the bank to the amount of $300,000. He will be taken to Montreal.

FOREIGN.

London, Dec. 12.—A Paris special says the gales on Tuesday were dreadful. Versailles was also visited by a hurricane. The damage to property was very great. Several persons were killed in both cities.

Intelligence has reached the city that the ship Franklin, from Hamburg for San Francisco, with a large number of emigrants, stranded on the coast of Vlieland, an island of the Netherlands, in the North Sea, and went to pieces. 80 persons are known to have perished.

London, Dec. 12.—The rates of discount at the Bank of England have been reduced one per cent., and are now five per cent.
